Background

transformation action sees transformation as a transparent and structured change process. An active influence is exerted on what occurs within a company and its environment. By researching the transformation of companies, networks and society, we have identified key instruments for your transformation. We offer you analyses, facilitation services and recommendations for action that are proven and scientifically substantiated, along with training/workshops.

The energy markets are in a state of upheaval: the energy system that was hitherto based, above all, on fossil energy sources is increasingly being superseded by renewable energy sources. In this process, the classic value chain (from producer to consumer) is losing significance more and more. Instead, former consumers are increasin-
